

Opening the Editor's Black Box: Insider Tips for Successful Submissions

Lecture Room N-308 (3F),
The Hokkaido University
Museum-Building,
Faculty of Science

Jul 19, 2019 @1:00pm – 2:30pm
(Discussion Session 2:40-3:10pm)

Abstract: Publishing papers in reputed journals is an integral part of the research cycle. In this workshop, we will open the Editor's black box by explaining how manuscripts are processed from submission to publication. In addition, we will discuss ethical aspects of publishing and give tips on how to prepare your manuscript for submission and improve your chances for successful publication. Topics to be covered include:

- How do I simplify my writing and improve the presentation of my results?
- How do I choose the right journal for submission?
- What do Editors and referees look for?
- How do I improve the visibility of my research?

—Special Lecturer: Jonathan Faiz (Deputy Editor of ChemPlusChem)—

Jonathan Faiz is Deputy Editor of ChemPlusChem and ChemistrySelect. He studied at the University of Oxford, where he carried out his Part II research with Harry L. Anderson. He obtained his PhD (supervised by Zoe Pikramenou) from the University of Birmingham in 2005, and carried out postdoctoral research in Birmingham (2005-2006) and with Jean-Pierre Sauvage at the Université Louis Pasteur, Strasbourg (2006-2008). He joined the editorial team of Angewandte Chemie in 2008 and moved to ChemPlusChem and ChemistrySelect in January 2019.